SENIORS: Graduation is rapidly approaching and you need to make sure that all of your fees and fines are paid. Fees need to be paid by April 1st, see the bookkeeper in B5B to pay. There are lists posted in the Senior Admin Center and by the bookkeeper's office that show names of who currently owe money. As a reminder, all books, uniforms and tech devices need to be turned in when the time comes, or those become an obligation as well.

“Good Day South High!” The QSA will be holding not one, not two, but THREE bake sales the last three school days before Spring Break during lunch at the M/K/S Intersection! Each day the QSA will be selling different baked goods so be sure to stop by each day to sample everything you can! On Tuesday 03/05, the QSA will be selling Cookies, on Wednesday 03/06 the QSA will be selling Brownies, and on Thursday 03/07, the QSA will be selling “gay-gourmet” goods such as dirt cups and chocolate covered goodies. Each item sold will be $1. We hope to see you there!”

And now for our Theatre in Our Schools Month Tech Tuesday shout out!

Last school year, our theatre tech crews logged in around 220 hours of work, after school, helping with rehearsals, concerts, programs, running shows, and striking the sets. This doesn't include all the hours during the school day, that they worked on the stage. We couldn't do it without our amazing Techies!

Now for the Theatre in Our Schools, Guess the Staff Member Competition

This friendly organizer of lives has been very involved in theatre, and I quote: "I participated heavily with MTYP back in the day. I cannot even tell you how many productions I was in. Some of my bigger roles were in Children of Eden, Jesus Christ Superstar, Music Man, Annie, and Oliver. I also originally started off as a Music Major in College. I was in Emporia State's Productions of Mikado and Lilith. I have also helped with costumes and with quick changes backstage for Ballet Wichita's The Nutcracker the last three years!" Bring your guess to A-1 during passing. The first right guess wins a treat!
