

Manufacturing Production

ABOUT THE PATHWAY

Careers in Manufacturing Production involve planning, managing, and performing the processing of materials into intermediate or final products and related professional and technical support activities (such as maintenance and repair).

Follow the Manufacturing Production pathway to explore these exciting careers:

- Computer Machine Operator
- Machine Setters
- Welders
- Engineering Technicians
- Fabricators
- And Many More!
- Annual wage range: $41,000-$63,000

PATHWAY LOCATIONS

Heights, North, Northwest, Southeast and West High Schools

STUDENT ORGANIZATIONS

Kansas Technology Student Association (TSA)

PROGRAM COURSES

INTRODUCTION: Introduction to Industrial Technology, Production Blueprint Reading, Introduction to Welding
TECHNICAL: Machine Tool Technology, Computer-Aided Machining (CAM) I, Welding Processes 1, Hand & Power Tools, Robotics
APPLICATION: Welding Processes 2, Advanced Materials Technology, Workplace Experience-Manufacturing