- This is the last week to sign up for the Saturday, February 9th ACT Test. Deadline is TODAY. Sign up NOW.
- Do you like poetry? Are you skilled at memorization and recitation? If so, Poetry Out Loud may be perfect for you! The in-school contest takes place Thursday, January 31 at 4:00 p.m. in the south library. If you are interested in competing, there will be an informative meeting in Chestnut's room at lunch, Tuesday January 15th. Requirements include: memorizing two poems from the Poetry Out Loud website and turning up to the contest. If you are currently doing Poetry Out Loud in your classroom, then this meeting is unnecessary. If not, be sure to attend the meeting or stop by to see Chestnut during the week.
- There will be a girls swimming and diving meeting Tuesday, Jan 15th in room S102 at lunch.
- Auditions for East's Multicultural Assembly are January 28th through January 31st! So if you have a cultural dance, song, rap, martial art, or trick to share with East High, come to room W223 before school, after school, or at lunch to pick up the audition form and sign up for an audition time. The Multicultural Assembly is sponsored by Students Against Prejudice and will take place in late March, but auditions are January 28th through 31st, in just a couple weeks, so come to W223 to sign up as soon as possible!
- Baseball Conditioning has started and will be every Tuesday, Wednesday and Thursday morning at 6:15am. We will meet in the gym foyer. Must have physical on file. Questions see Coach Bensch.
- Science Olympiad meeting in S206 at Lunch TODAY – team members bring your appetite for knowledge!
