Tony Anderson – Class of 1968
Tony had the greatest all-round single football season in East history. In 1967, he was #1 in City League rushing, #1 in City League receiving and #1 in City League scoring with 93 points. He was a unanimous All-City and All-State football selection. Tony was also a sprinter on the 1967 East state championship track team.

Jim Barger – 1958-1967
Coach Barger ranks in the top five of the winningest football coaches in City League history. While at East, Coach Barger’s teams won four City League championships in 1958, 1959, 1961 and 1967.

Marcie Borchard – Class of 1983
Marcie became the first All-City softball player in East history in 1982, after the first five years of City League softball having no East players on the All-City teams. A hard-hitting outfielder, she led the way for future East softball players.

Jerry Gardner – Class of 1958
Jerry was a leading scorer in basketball at East in the 1950’s, averaging 21.5 points his senior year. He led East to a third place state championship finish in 1958. He was also a state champion in the long jump. Jerry is currently the fifty-third leading scorer in KU basketball history, scoring 1,030 points from 1960-62.

Jake Spitz – Class of 2013
Jake is a four-time state swimming champion, a sixteen-time City League swimming champion and an All-American in the 100 butterfly. Jake also was captain of the East state champion swim team.
Arthur Brown – Class of 2008
As a sophomore and junior, Arthur was a consensus First team Class 6A All-State selection and as a senior, he was named to the Second Eleven All-State team. At K-State, he won the 2012 Big 12 Conference Defensive Player of the Year. Arthur also spent four seasons in the NFL.

Bryce Brown – Class of 2009
Bryce played running back for East from 2005 to 2008. With over 6,000 yards rushing, he is the best back in the history of the Wichita City League. As a four-time All-City back and numerous All-State awards, Bryce went on to play in the NFL.

Cheryl Dickerson – Class of 1982
Sharing the title of East’s first two-time All-City girls’ basketball player in the same years of 1981 and 1982 with East Hall of Fame inductee Kym Carter, Cheryl led her team to an overall record of 41 wins and 3 losses and a third place finish in the state championship in 1982. Cheryl went on to play basketball at Barton County Community College and University of Dayton.

J.D. Edmiston – 1955-1980
Coach Edmiston was one of several great track and field coaches that East has been fortunate enough to have. He had many state champions throughout the 1960’s and 1970’s while at East. The J.D. Edmiston Track and Field Scholarship Fund was established after Coach Edmiston passed away in 2008.

Greg Esaw – Class of 1968
After playing his last game as an Ace over 50 years ago, Greg is still East’s best single season quarterback with 1,211 yards on 80 of 163 attempts and 13 touchdowns. Named All-City and Second team All-State, he led East to an undefeated City League title. Greg also played baseball at East and went on to play baseball in college.

Ken Thiessen – 2003-2018
Mr. Thiessen began his career as a teacher in the Wichita Public Schools in 1981. He started working at East in 1992 as an assistant principal and named principal in 2003. He served in that capacity until retiring in 2018. He helped co-found the East High Hall of Fame in 2004, served on the Kansas High School Activities Association Board of Directors, and was the President of the Executive Board in 2014. During his tenure as principal, he was very supportive of all extra-curricular activities and promoted the rich traditions that the school is known for; a few of these are awarding Spirit Sticks, attempting to control the Hecklers, and jumping into the pool after swimming championships. East is the home of the Blue Aces and the acquisition of the biplane that hangs in the gym foyer was also a project led under Mr. Thiessen’s leadership.
Mike Anderson – 1981-2007
Mike Anderson started the boys’ soccer program at East in 1981, along with taking over the girls’ program in 1989, a year after it started. He coached until 2007 before passing away from cancer. Coach Anderson is considered one of the pioneers of high school soccer in Wichita. He led the boys’ program to 3 regional titles and the girls’ program to 5 regional titles along with a 3rd place state finish in 1998. In his 26 years at East, he coached hundreds of soccer players and also encouraged academic success. Although stern in his actions as a coach, he cared for all of his players as if they were his own.

Michael Draut – 1999-2016
Michael is a former athlete and coach of East High cross country and track. While an athlete at East from 1975-1978, he was a 3 year letter winner in both track and cross country. Michael became an assistant coach at East in 1999. He was the head coach from 2003 to 2016. He coached numerous all-state athletes during his tenure. Coach Draut’s boys’ teams were consistently competitive in championship meets and in 2010 placed as high as 4th in the state. Coach Draut’s girls’ teams were consistently some of the best in the area during his tenure. This included breaking a drought of city championships since 1988 in 2016.

Monica (Spencer) Downs – Class of 1984
Monica was the first star volleyball player in the City League for East. While at East from 1981 to 1984, she lettered 2 years in volleyball and 3 years in both basketball and softball. She was a part of multiple City League championships in volleyball and basketball as well as a number of state appearances in volleyball, basketball and softball. She was selected All-City twice each in volleyball, basketball and softball, as well as being selected All-State twice in volleyball and once in basketball. She led East to a 2nd place finish in the 1983 state volleyball championships and is still considered one of the top 3 setters in City League history. After graduation, Monica went on to earn NJCAA conference honors in both volleyball and basketball, and earned Big Eight post-season honors in volleyball while at the University of Kansas.

David Waldie – Class of 1967
David lettered 2 years in tennis while at East from 1965 to 1967, along with a City League championship in 1966. While volleyball was not played while David was at East, he went on to a great volleyball coaching career at Friends University. He coached at Friends University for 10 years winning 3 KCAC championships and 2 district championships. His 1985 team went to the NAIA Championship tournament. He is in the Friends Athletic Hall of Fame.
Class of 2017 Inductees

Bobbie Givens – 1988-2009
For over 20 years as a contributor to East Athletics and East High School as a whole, Bobbie has done everything that needed to be done to help the sports department with all sports. Whether it was selling tickets, supervision, or working concessions, Bobbie has been a friend and supporter of all athletes and coaches at East.

Andrea Rhoads – Class of 2000
As a softball pitcher at East from 1997 to 2000, Andrea is considered one of the most dominant pitchers in the state of Kansas. She was a four-time All-City first team softball pitcher. Known for great control and the ability to put the softball where she wanted, made her one of the most feared pitchers ever to play in the Wichita City League. Andrea was a 4-year letterwinner in softball, basketball and volleyball.

Bill Scherich – 1986-1997
As head baseball coach at West from 1967 to 1970 and then at East from 1986 to 1997, Coach Scherich won over 203 games while losing 108, with eight trips to the state championship. He won two Kansas state championships, had four 2nd or 3rd place state championship finishes, and four City League championships. He was also named Wichita City League baseball coach of the year in 1988 and 1989.

Tama Salter – Class of 1991
The Wichita Eagle named Tama the best 100 meter freestyle lady swimmer in Wichita City League history, winning Kansas state championships in the 100 freestyle in 1989 and 1990, and in the 200 freestyle in 1989. She also broke six City League records during her high school career. Tama went on to swim four years for Texas Christian University.

Ev Wessel – 1968-1974
Coach Wessel was head boys’ basketball coach from 1968-74. He had 65 wins and 65 losses. Coach Wessel’s team also won the state basketball championship in 1972 and was runner-up in 1973. Coach Wessel also is known for hiring Lafayette Norwood for his first coaching job at a time that was difficult in our country’s history.
Kirk Allen – Class of 1984
Kirk Allen was an All-City linebacker and member of two footbAll-State championships in 1982 and 1983. His three-year Wichita East record was 32 wins and only 4 losses. Kirk was a driving force for the Aces success. After Wichita East, he went to Wichita State to continue his football career and became an All-MVC football player in 1986 while playing for Coach Ron Chismar.

Terry Benton – Class of 1968
Terry Benton was an All-State basketball player as a Wichita East senior. At Wichita State, he was the MVC rebounding champion in two of his three varsity seasons. His 16.8 rebounding average in 1970-71 remains the best in Shocker history. He scored 1,003 points and shot 50 percent from the field for his career. Terry was named first team All-Missouri Valley Conference in 1971 and 1972 and was inducted into the Shocker Hall of Fame.

Berry Dunham – Class of 1925
Berry Dunham led the 1925 Wichita High School basketball team (now Wichita East) to the national interscholastic crown in Chicago, drubbing a team from El Reno, Oklahoma, in the title game, 27-6. That Wichita High team produced center, and Shocker Hall of Fame member, Ross McBurney and guard Berry Dunham, who anchored powerful Wichita University teams of 1927-28 under Shocker Hall of Fame Coach, Gene Johnson. Berry also won three AAU National Basketball Championships playing for Henrys in 1930, 1931 and 1932.

Charles Horner – Class of 1965
Charles Horner is one of Wichita East’s greatest swimmers of all time in any category and without a doubt the greatest 200 freestyle swimmer Wichita East has ever produced. He is also one of the best swimmers in Kansas history. Horner was only the second swimmer in the history of Kansas high school state championship swimming competition to win three consecutive swimming state championships in 1963, 1964 and 1965.

Reo Nichols – Class of 1977
Reo Nichols is one of Wichita East High School’s best wrestlers of all-time and without a doubt, Wichita East’s greatest wrestler at 171 lbs. As a sophomore he placed 3rd at state. With determination and hard work Reo went on to win back-to-back Kansas High School wrestling state champion in 1976 and 1977.

Wes Anderson – Class of 1984
As one of the best running backs ever to play at Wichita East, Wes Anderson is in the top 30 of all-time top rusher in the City League and was All-City in 1983. He led the City League in rushing his senior year with 1,208 yards while leading his team to the state football championship in 6A while playing for head football coach and Wichita East Hall of Fame inductee, Chuck Porter.

Allen Daniels – Class of 1944
Coach Daniels was an undefeated wrestler at Wichita East in both his junior and senior years winning the state wrestling championship in 1944 and 1945. Only an injury kept Coach Daniels from winning another wrestling state championship his sophomore year. Coach Daniels was also a successful basketball and track coach at Mead Junior High School in USD 259 for 28 years. At age 87, at the time of this 2015 induction, Coach Daniels is still active and follows City League sports.

Jamie Knorr – Class of 1967
Jamie Knorr is considered one of the top Wichita East swimmers of all-time. At a time when City League swimming was best in the entire state of Kansas, Knorr is without a doubt, the greatest Greater Wichita City League 200 individual medley swimmer of all-time. Jamie won five Kansas swimming state champion titles in the mid 1960’s.

He coached for 35 years at Morehouse College in Atlanta, Georgia, between 1989 and 1992; his teams were 90-30, reaching the NCAA Division II Final Four in 1990. In 1999, he was third vice president of the National Association of Basketball Coaches (NABC) and in line to become president in 2001-02, but retired before reaching that office. Ninety-five percent of his players received their degrees.

Ross McBurney – Class of 1925
Ross McBurney was a star 6'3" center on the 1925 Wichita High (now Wichita East) team which won the National High School championship in Chicago, Illinois, in 1925. He then led Wichita University to third place in the National AAU tourney in 1929 and later was a key figure on Wichita Henry's teams in 1930-31 that won national AAU titles en route to a record three crowns in a row in 1930-32. He was named as center on the National AAU first team. He played for Wichita University from 1926-29 and was the first Wichita University player to be named to an All-America team. He became an insurance agent in Wichita and Halstead.

Ron Neugent – Class of 1978
Ron Neugent competed with the Wichita Swim Club while attending Wichita East High School, where he competed nationally. After high school, Neugent had an All-American season at SMU in 1979 competing in the 1650 yard freestyle. He spent the next year training for the 1980 Olympics. In 1979, he won a gold medal in the 1500-meter freestyle at the World University Games, but America boycotted the Olympics in Moscow because of political differences after Neugent had finished third in the Olympic trials in the 1500 freestyle. After transferring to Kansas University in 1980, he set an American record in the 1500-meter short-course freestyle and was an All-American in 1983. Neugent trained again for the 1984 Olympics, but didn’t qualify. He is currently an orthodontist in Wichita.

Clint Normore – Class of 1984
A tough, unrelenting two-sport star, Clint Normore was an All-City and All-State point guard as a senior in 1984, helping the Blue Aces to a third place finish in Class 6A. Normore was also an All-State safety in football and quarterbacked two undefeated 6A state championship teams while at Wichita East. Normore played two seasons of basketball and on of football at Wichita State University before transferring to Kansas University in 1987. At KU, he was an honorable mention All-Big Eight safety in 1987, and his playing career ended in the 1988 NCAA basketball championship game. He scored 7 points, which was a career high. After a career in law enforcement, he currently is director of intramural sports at Oklahoma City University.
Jaime Thompson – Class of 1963
In his junior year, Jaime Thompson turned in a definitive performance by hitting all nine of his field goal attempts and all 10 of his free throws. That helped propel Wichita State University to a 100-94 victory over Michigan, which was ranked No. 2 and the time. He stood only 6’3” and was not swift afoot, but his quick release and his deadly accuracy made him one of the most feared Shockers. He was a key to the success of the 1964-65 WSU team which won the Missouri Valley title, beat Oklahoma State in the Midwest Regional title game, and became the only Shocker squad to reach the Final Four. Thompson scored 36 points in the NCAA semifinal loss to UCLA. He is still the Shockers’ free throw accuracy leader at 85.3 percent. He was equally adept on the golf course as on the basketball court. He was runner-up in the Kansas Amateur golf tournament in 1964 and finished second twice in the Missouri Valley Conference tournament.

Marc Waldie – Class of 1973
Marc Waldie reaped many honors as a mainstay on the Ohio State men’s volleyball team in the 1970s and 1980s, culminating with an Olympic gold medal in the 1984 Games. He was an outstanding middle blocker who was named to the all-tournament team in the NCAA playoffs in 1975-76-77. He was also named to the Ohio State University Sports Hall of Fame and was honored with a spot on the National Volleyball All-Era team which covered the period from 1978 to 2002. Several times he was named captain of the U.S. National team. He helped lead the Buckeyes to a four-year record of 89 victories and only 18 losses. He was the 1976 Ohio State University Player of the Year and three-time All-American.

1925 Wichita High Basketball Team
Eight young basketball players put Wichita on the basketball map in 1925 by capturing the national interscholastic crown in Chicago, drubbing a team from El Reno, Okla., in the title game, 27-6. That Wichita team produced center Ross McBurney and guard Berry Dunham, who anchored powerful Wichita U. teams of 1927-28 and led the Wichita Henrys to a record three straight national AAU championships (1930-31-32). Other members of the Wichita High team were Cy Crosette, Howard Fullington, Tom Churchill, Paul Fowler, Jack Barrington and George McCormick. Churchill became a driving force on Oklahoma University’s undefeated 1928 team and an All-American for OU in 1929.
Class of 2005 Inductees

Jeff Ferrell – Class of 1954
Jeff Ferrell won three state swimming titles swimming for his coach, Bob Timmons. Farrell then swam for the University of Oklahoma where he earned All-American honors. But it was at the 1960 Olympic games in Rome, where Farrell shined. As a swimmer on the 400 medley and the 800 freestyle relay teams, Farrell won gold medals in both races while setting world records in both races. Ferrell is an inductee in the International Swimming Hall of Fame, Kansas Sports Hall of Fame and Wichita Sports Hall of Fame.

Marilynn Smith – Class of 1947
While a student at Wichita East, there were no girls’ sports. That didn’t stop Marilynn Smith from becoming a champion golfer. She won three Kansas Amateur golf titles in 1946, 1947 and 1948 and the national collegiate crown in 1949 playing for Kansas University. A pioneer of women’s golf who signed articles of incorporation that created the Ladies Professional Golf Association at the U.S. Open at Wichita’s Rolling Hills Country Club in 1950. She won two majors (1963-64 Titleholders) and 22 titles on the LPGA Tour and served as LPGA president three years. She has been inducted into the World Golf Hall of Fame, Kansas Golf Hall of Fame, Texas Golf Hall of Fame, Kansas Sports Hall of Fame, LPGA Teachers Hall of Fame and Wichita Sports Hall of Fame.

Bob Timmons – 1956-1964
As the head track coach and swimming coach for Wichita East High School, Bob Timmons touched many lives. His most famous Wichita East High School athlete was the mile world record holder, Jim Ryun. In swimming, Coach Timmons coached Olympic swimming gold medal winner in the 1960 Rome games, Jeff Farrell. Coach Timmons left Wichita East and coached track and cross-country at Kansas University, winning many Big 8 championships and coaching many All-Americans. Coach Timmons has been inducted into the US Track Hall of Fame, Kansas Sports Hall of Fame, KU Hall of Fame and Wichita Sports Hall of Fame.

Cleo Littleton – Class of 1951
Littleton was named third-team All-American in his senior year but was all-Missouri Valley all four years that he played. He set the school career scoring record at 2,164 points. He also set career records for free throws made (642) and scoring average (19.0). The former Wichita East High School star led the 1953-54 Shockers to a berth in the National Invitation Tournament for the first time. An iron man, Littleton played in 184 consecutive games without a miss from his sophomore season in high school to his senior season at WSU. He was drafted by the Fort Wayne Pistons of the NBA. His No. 13 is one of five that have been retired by WSU. Cleo is an inductee in the Shocker Hall of Fame, Wichita Sports Hall of Fame and Kansas Sports Hall of Fame.

Ralph Miller – 1948-1951
In the 1950s and early ‘60s, Wichita State opponents dreaded the raucous crowds and the yellow glow of The Roundhouse. What they feared more was the constant full-court, zone pressure defense of Coach Miller’s Shockers, who scored many of their points by forcing foes into turnovers and shooting layups. Miller used zone pressure to fashion a career in which he won 674 games and championships in three conferences. An all-around athlete at Chanute High and the University of Kansas, Miller began his coaching career at Wichita. He coached the Shockers to 14 seasons, winning 63 games and one state title in three years. Then he went to Wichita University and put together a 220-133 record in 14 seasons. He also coached at Iowa University and Oregon State, retiring as the sixth winningest coach in NCAA history. He was the National Basketball Coach of the Year in 1981 and 1982, took nine teams to NCAA tournaments and five to the NIT. Miller was inducted into the Naismith Basketball Hall of Fame in 1988, College Basketball Hall of Fame, Kansas Sports Hall of Fame and the Wichita Sports Hall of Fame.

Jim Ryun – Class of 1965
Jim Ryun had a finishing kick that often left the world’s best middle distance giants of his day in his dust. In June of 1964 he became the first high school runner to break four minutes in the mile, posting a 3:59.0 in the Compton Relays. In the 1965 Compton Relays, Ryun finished third at 3:56.8, only four-tenths of a second behind former world record holder Peter Snell of New Zealand. Then Ryun hit his stride. He broke the world record in the mile twice, running 3:51.3 in 1966 and breaking his own record in 1967 at 3:51.1. He was named Sportsman of the Year in 1966 by Sports Illustrated and won the AAU’s Sullivan Award as the best amateur athlete. He also held world records in the 1500 at 3:33.1, the half mile at 1:48.3 and anchored the KU sprint medley relay team to a 3:15.2 world record. He was a member of three U.S. Olympic teams, 1964, 1968 and 1972. He is a member of the National Track and Field Hall of Fame, Kansas Sports Hall of Fame, KU Hall of Fame and Wichita Sports Hall of Fame. Ryun became a professional photographer, then ran successfully for a seat in the U.S. Congress representing northeast Kansas.

Linwood Sexton – Class of 1944
Linwood Sexton was a gifted black football player who broke the color barrier at Wichita University as a running back in the 1940s. He was a three-sport star at Wichita East High and a three-time All-Missouri Valley running back at WU (1945-47). His 1,995 career rushing yards were fourth all-time and 2,260 all-purpose yards were ninth at WSU. His No. 66 jersey was retired during his senior season. He is a member of the Kansas Sports Hall of Fame, Shocker Hall of Fame and Wichita Sports Hall of Fame. He was presented the 1977 Alumni Achievement Award by the WSU Alumni Association and several scholarships have been endowed in his name. He is a past member of the WSU Endowment Association and the Board of Trustees as well as the Kansas Board of Regents.

Daryl Spencer – Class of 1946
Daryl Spencer was that rare shortstop who could hit with power and he wielded his power for a decade in the National League and for several more years in Japan. Spencer struggled to make the starting lineup in his days at Wichita East High and on other amateur teams. But he never gave up and finally landed on a Class D professional team in Pauls Valley, Okla. That is where he suddenly began to hit home runs. The New York Giants bought his contract in 1951 and Spencer spent six years with the National League club in New York and San Francisco. His best season was 1958 when he hit 17 homers and drove in 74 runs for San Francisco. He later played for the Cardinals, Dodgers and Reds and hit a total of 105 home runs and had 428 RBI during his Major League career. Then he went to Japan and became one of that nation’s top sluggers and made the all-star team twice. He also coached in Japan. Spencer is an inductee in the Kansas Sports Hall of Fame, Kansas Baseball Hall of Fame, NBC Hall of Fame and Wichita Sports Hall of Fame.
